

Community Arts Events Organisers Meet-Up Opportunity!

Calling all representatives of rural communities across Norfolk, Suffolk and Cambridgeshire!

Are you highly involved in your local community, or would like to be?

Do you think your community could benefit from exciting, high-quality theatre and cinema events?

If so, then come along to one of our free upcoming meetings on Friday 20th May, Norwich or Thursday 26th May, Ely to find out how we can help you get started.

The sessions will include...

- LIVE! and Screen scheme information for newcomers
- Performance sneak-peaks and film clip trailer reels
- 'How To' interactive event planning
- Support with Covid security and audience confidence
- Creative audience development workshop
- Free dinner and refreshments!

Please RSVP by Weds 11th May

Norwich Meet-Up

Friday 20th May, 2-5pm

Dragon Hall, 115-123 King Street, Norwich NR1 1QE

(with a light dinner buffet from 5-6pm)

We are also pleased to be able to offer a limited amount of FREE tickets to a fantastic Norfolk & Norwich Festival show happening after the meeting. The brilliant Lost Dog Dance have performed to rural venues across the UK before with their accessible and quirky combination of dance and theatre, and this year they are bringing their new adaptation of 'A Tale of Two Cities' to St Andrew's & Blackfriars' Hall as part of NNF.

Ely Meet-Up

Thursday 26th May, 4-6pm

Babylon Arts Gallery, Babylon Bridge, Waterside, Ely CB7 4AU

(with drinks and pizza from 6pm)

Following the meeting, we're then thrilled to offer a limited amount of FREE tickets to a National Theatre Live cinema screening of 'Straight Line Crazy' event at 7pm, at The Maltings.
